subject: Application for Intern Software Engineer position- Referral ID: [0037IV744]

Dear Hiring Manager,

I'm writing to IBM to show interest in the Intern Software Engineer opportunity that was posted on your website. I am thrilled about the opportunity to join your vibrant company and offer my expertise and talents.

I have a solid foundation in Java and Python. I worked on different projects like the Sudoku solver app and calculator app using Java, and XML, and also I have a good knowledge of tools that are used in industries, including Postman, MYSQL workbench, Gitlab, and GitHub. I am sure I can contribute significantly to IBM.

Speaking with Sagar Boga [Referrer], who works as a Front-end developer at IBM right now, The company's dedication to innovation and its collaborative work atmosphere, which precisely coincides with my career ambitions, were highly praised by Sagar Boga. I'm thrilled about the chance to talk in an interview about how my qualifications and experiences make me a solid fit for this role.

If there was a chance to talk more about my application at an interview, I would be very appreciative. Please feel free to contact me at +91 8975109323 or jayantbadgu1234@gmail.com.

I appreciate your consideration of my application. I'm excited about the potential to help IBM succeed.

Sincerely,

Jayant Badgu
